VOLUME L — UKIAH CITY, MENDOCINO COUNTY, CAL., FRIDAY OCTOBER 12, 1917 — NUMBER 1

MANY FAIL TO REPORT ON LAST DRAFT SUMMONS

The third contingent of draft men entrained this city last Sunday afternoon and left at 2:30 for the training camp at American Lake. Saturday evening the men were given the usual send-off, with a banquet at each of the two hotels and a program in the courthouse plaza. Theodore Bell, who had been prevailed on to address the men, made a fine speech, and other speakers selected locally added to the success of the occasion. Following the program the street was cleared and an open-air dance was held at which all enjoyed themselves until a late hour.

A special train was furnished to take the boys away, and it brought the Humboldt county men, a fine looking bunch of material, and picked up the Lake county contingent at Hopland.

There were 22 missing in the number of those who reported and on the other hand eight who had failed to report for other contingents were here to join the squad. The missing ones were:

John Warre, Albion; Poll Pomon, San Francisco; Antonio Peres, Fort Bragg; Gust Luoto, Leadville, Col.; Enrico Leoni, Mendocino; Theodore J. Richter, Talmage; Joseph Ehiopello, Spy Rock; Harry Begley, Elk; Antonio Constanti, Irmulco; Samuel Waren, Ukiah R. F. D.; Geo. Dave, Fort Bragg; Pete Buchini, Merced Falls; Kiratos Taramontanas, Lodi; Russell Hughes, Ukiah; Chas. Campbell; Fred Grondorf, Ukiah; Edgar Ernest Strait, Potter Valley; John Jola, Spy Rock; Roy Hull, Caspar; Ragnar E. E. Anderson, Caspar; Albino Fiori, Mendocino; Dong On, Sherwood.

Those in attendance who had never reported before either for physical examination or on the summons for entrainment were:

Augustino Zani, Fort Bragg; Waino Richard Tura, Fort Bragg; Saino Ladovici, Mendocino; Francisco R. Coelho, Fort Bragg; Constantino Kohatsis, Spy Rock; Quintino Gini, Mendocino; Aug. Theo. Haggblom, Albion.

UKIAH CANNERY COMPLETES 35,000 CASES OF BEANS

The Ukiah cannery the first of the week completed the canning of its beans. There will be in the neighborhood of 35,000 cases. The cannery had orders for about 40,000 cases. The cannery is proceeding now with the canning of spinach and will turn out about 2000 cases of this. It is packed in gallon cans and the 2000 cases is equal to about 5000 cases of the beans as to bulk. The cannery is also negotiating with the new Healdsburg cannery for some tomatoes and several hundred tons of tomatoes will be canned if they can be obtained at satisfactory terms. The Healdsburg cannery is swamped with tomatoes this year.

In addition to its canned stuff, the cannery will have over 1000 sacks of potatoes and several dozen sacks of dry beans.

MISS MARY ELDRED WEDS NAPA MAN

Miss Mary Eldred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Eldred, formerly of Ukiah, but late of Tehama, was married last Monday to Leif E. Wahlberg, at Napa. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the relatives of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Wahlberg is a young lady of unusual beauty, and was one of the reigning belles of Tehama county. She is remembered by many acquaintances in Ukiah. The groom is one of the leading ranchers at Napa. After a brief honeymoon spent in San Francisco and the bay cities the young couple will reside at Napa.

Mendocino county friends of the bride and her family extend felicitations.

HUMBOLDT COUNTY JUDGE TO CONDUCT ARSON TRIAL

Owing to the illness of Judge White, the trial of Jas. McKinley, of Willits, on an arson charge, next Monday, will be held before Judge Denver Sever, of Humboldt county. The jury is being summoned by Elisor Wm. Chessall from among local residents.

McKinley is charged with having attempted to burn the old Commercial hotel building at Willits.

JUSTICES REPORT

In addition to the receipts of the county treasurer as published in last week's Dispatch, the following justices have sent in their reports: Judge Kilbourne, 50c; Judge Furniss, 50c; Judge Young, $50.25; Judge Brown, $2.00; Judge Wallace, $12.00.

FARM ADVISOR MEETINGS HELD DURING WEEK

Five meetings have been held in Mendocino county during the past week at Ukiah, Willits, Hopland, and Potter and Redwood valleys for the purpose of acquainting the farmers of these sections with the workings of the county farm advisor system in California. This system of agricultural extension which is based on the principle that a man living in the county continuously with his work in the field among the farmers of the county, can render more efficient service than is given by correspondence or itinerant visits by agricultural college experiment station men, has been adopted by the United States department of agriculture as the plan that it will follow in rendering assistance to the agricultural interests of the country.

At the first three meetings referred to above, Professor W. T. Clarke, head of the agricultural extension division of the college of agriculture, made the address on the subject of the farm advisor, while at the latter two meetings Mr. H. J. Baade, farm advisor for Napa county presented this phase of the work. Following the talks, which were illustrated by an exceedingly interesting series of lantern pictures illustrating the work in various counties, a very enthusiastic interest was taken in the matter by farmers present, and active committees were appointed to secure membership in the farm bureau.

One of the conditions upon which a farm advisor is appointed in a county is that one-fifth of the farmers of the county must indicate their cooperation by becoming members of the county farm bureau through which the farm advisor does his work. After the requisite farm bureau membership has been secured it will be necessary to secure the interest of the county board of supervisors, and an appropriation of $2,000 to cover the expenses of the county agent who is appointed and whose salary is paid by the university.

T. J. Weldon, of Ukiah, John Rupe of Willits, S. E. Brookes of Hopland, George L. Magneson of Calpella, and James Eddie of Potter Valley are chairman of the five committees in charge of the membership campaign in the districts mentioned.

Professor Gordon H. True, head of the animal husbandry division, University of California, is in charge of the campaign for a farm advisor in Mendocino county, and is planning to hold other meetings in the coast and intermediate valleys, assisted by Mr. Baade of Napa. Professor True says that his mission is not to force a farm advisor on Mendocino county or to urge the acceptance of one, but rather to acquaint the people with the working on the system, leaving to the good judgment of the farmers the matter of determining whether they want their county to be numbered among those which have or have not accepted this form of assistance from the federal government and the agricultural college.

LAWRENCE WAUGH SAILED FOR FRANCE RECENTLY

A letter received by relatives of Lawrence Waugh, of the engineering corps, carries the information that he has been made a corporal and that he expected to sail immediately for France on Sept. 29. They were packed up and ready to go at four hours' notice, so in all probability they are on the other side ere this.

He states that the entire division of 35,000 men passed in review before Secretary of War Baker the previous Sunday and his regiment won second honors in the review, the 69th, of New York, taking first.

He speaks of the presence in his company of a cousin of Mrs. Peggy Lynch, of this place, by name of Gerard, from Oakland, and Sam Wilson, a brother of Mrs. Cecil Dutton. A man named Doke, who formerly lived in Redwood Valley is also mentioned as being in the company.

DR. SELBY MARKS WITH BASE HOSPITAL NO. 47

Dr. Selby Marks, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Marks, of Ukiah, is on the medical staff of Army Base Hospital, No. 47. The personnel of the hospital has been completed by the San Francisco chapter of the American Red Cross and forwarded to Washington for certification by the National organization. The unit will be equipped immediately and held in readiness for the call to service.

J. R. Banks and wife were down from their Laughlin ranch the first of the week.

Claude Johnson returned to Ukiah this week after an extended absence.

MITCHELL CREEK TEACHER DRAWS FIRST BLOOD

Mrs. Amy Hargrave Anderson, teacher of the Mitchell creek school near Noyo, drew first blood this week in the controversy going on between her and the county board of education, when she obtained from Judge White an order restraining the county board of education from holding a hearing on her case at Willits on Oct. 11th. The matter is postponed by this writ until the 20th at which time Mrs. Anderson's attorney, T. J. Weldon, will apply to have the writ made permanent. The application for the writ alleges that Mrs. Anderson was served by the board with a notice to appear at Willits as above stated to show cause why the board should not recommend to the state board of education that her life diploma be revoked. The application alleges that the county board exceeded its jurisdiction.

It is stated that the county board charges Mrs. Anderson with falsifying the attendance records of her school, with the result that the school received more school money than was justly due it. It is also reported that the county superintendent was unable to obtain the records when demand was made for them and that they had disappeared since.

W. A. S. FOSTER WEDS MISS MILLIE OVERSETT

W. A. S. Foster, manager of the Northwestern Redwood Co., president of the Bank of Willits, and heavily interested in various enterprises in this county, was married to Miss Millie Oversett, also of Willits, at St. John's Presbyterian church, San Francisco, Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Louisana Foster and Paul Foster, sister and brother of the groom, acted as bride's maid and best man, respectively. The only guests were members of their families. The happy couple are now spending their honeymoon in southern California and upon their return will make their home in Willits.

The groom is one of the best known business men in Mendocino county, for in addition to his large business interests he has been identified with every movement for the upbuilding of our county.

The bride is a sister-in-law of Wm. Weigand, manager of the Hotel Willits, and is almost as well known as her husband for she has been connected with the above named hotel for the past ten years. She is a striking blonde and has always taken a great interest in all kinds of charitable movements in the northern city.

S. F. CAPITAL WILL DEVELOP MORE MANGANESE

Willits, Oct. 10.—San Francisco capitalists have located nine manganese claims on the north side of San Hedrin. They have formed a close corporation and will develop their mine on a large scale next year as soon as the weather permits. They now have about ten miners getting out some ore and they hope to be able to ship several carloads of ore before the rains set in. The mine is 25 miles from Willits and it will be hauled to that place for shipment.

ALVA OGLE GIVEN FAREWELL DINNER SUNDAY

Alva Ogle, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Ogle, of Ornbaun, was tendered a farewell dinner in Ukiah last Sunday just previous to his departure with his comrades of the draft contingent for the training camp at American Lake.

The affair was given by the young man's aunts, Mrs. J. C. Thomson and Mrs. L. Charlton, at the home of Mrs. Thomson. Dinner was served under a big walnut tree in the yard, and the table was groaning with good things. Needless to say the affair was much enjoyed and appreciated by young Ogle.

Those present besides the hostesses and the guest of honor were Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Ogle, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ogle, Millard Ogle, Georgie, Francis, Nellie and Pearl Ogle, Harold, Donald and Carroll Thomson, Marjorie, Minnie and Ruth Thomson, Lou Charlton, John Elkins, Warren Lampson, Mrs. Elnora Arnold and son Joe.

NEW POSTMASTER ARRIVES

A boss for Postmaster M. J. Fancher, of Calpella, put in his appearance at the Fancher home last Wednesday evening and has taken charge of affairs. The young fellow weighs eight pounds, but is 32 ounces to the pound, and is lusty and vigorous, and has dad on the jump most of the time.

Atty. Hugh Preston went to San Francisco on business the latter part of last week.

RECRUITING OFFICER HERE TODAY FOR RECRUITS

Corporal Cecil R. Shank will be in Ukiah today and will receive recruits for all branches of the United States, British and Canadian armies. The aviation branch of the signal corps opened again on Oct. 9, and men of all trades are wanted for this branch of the service. Chauffeurs, electricians, engine repair men, motor cycle repair men, etc., are especially wanted at once. After enlistment and when subject to assignment, all applicants accepted for this service will be sent to Fort Sam Houston, Texas, for duty with aero squadrons being organized in the southern department.

The engineer branch of the service is still open and men of all trades are needed. Men will be sent to Fort McDowell and then forwarded east, where all engineer headquarters are located.

For further particulars interview the recruiting officer when he arrives here, or apply at the postoffice.

Friendly aliens will be accepted whether they have first papers or not. Drafted men not yet called for physical examination are also eligible for enlistment.

NEW INDUSTRV PROMISED BY COYOTE VALLEY CONCLRN

A new industry is promised for this section by the people who recently took over the property of the Standard stock farm in Coyote valley. It is a cooperative hog farm and the idea as it is being explained by the promoters is meeting with much favor among local people who have funds to invest.

The proposition is to raise only blooded hogs, and, figured on a conservative basis, the investor will get approximately $2000 in three years on an investment of $500, according to the promoters. They claim that this figure is very conservative. The terms of these subscriptions are $70.00 cash and $10.00 a month until the $500.00 has been paid. The subscriptions are to participate in dividends semi-annually.

The syndicate also plans the establishment of a packing plant in the course of time.

One of the main constituents of the diet proposed to be fed the hogs, is acorns, and to the end that a big supply of these may be obtained the syndicate is offering 75c per hundred pounds for them, delivered at the ranch. The acorns are ground into a flour and are mixed with barley and other grains, and the whole is made into a mash.

Announcement regarding the offer for acorns is carried in an advertisement elsewhere in the Dispatch.

HAROLD SLOPER BURNED

Harold Sloper had a narrow escape from death last Wednesday at the local cannery when he slipped and almost fell into a vat of boiling liquid, heated to 360 degrees. Luckily he caught a projection and saved himself from falling bodily into the vat, but one arm slipped into the liquid and was cooked from the finger tips almost to the shoulder. The burn is quite deep.

Al Carlson, the well known Fort Bragg contractor, was in town the first of the week, looking after bids on bridge contracts. He is with the state highway engineers at Cummings, where he is assisting in the construction work.

DYNAMITE IN SAW LOGS AT FORT BRAGG

Fort Bragg, Oct. 11—Seemingly by a miracle a serious explosion was averted in the mill of the Union Lumber Co., at this place Wednesday, when the big saw ripped through two sticks of dynamite which had been concealed in a hollow log. As soon as the dynamite was discovered an investigation was made and four other sticks were found. They had been thrust up the hollow to a distance of six feet. The theory was advanced that someone had put them there for safe keeping, but the fact that they were so far up as to preclude their being withdrawn makes it look as if someone had put them there with the intention of wrecking the mill. The fact that the Union Lumber Co. is supposed to be sawing on the big lumber contracts recently awarded by the United States government makes it look as if the German spy plots had at last reached this place.

DEATH OF WILLITS RESIDENT

Willits, Oct. 11—Solomon Kramer died at Willits, early Sunday morning. The deceased was born in Pennsylvania, October 10, 1839, and was buried on his birthday, October 10, 1917. His death was due to the infirmities of old age. He came to the state about 20 years ago and first located in Los Angeles county. Ten years ago he came to Willits and homesteaded a claim on the Outlet about 10 miles north of town. Little is known of his past history, but we are informed that he was a widower without children, and that his only relatives are some nephews back East. The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, Rev. A. Z. Bose conducting the services.

PINE RIDGE FIRE NOW UNDERCONTROL

The fire which has been burning the past week on Pine ridge was brought under control yesterday. It burned some tanbark on the Briggs range and spread across the southern end of that range and on ta the Chris Bradford ranch.

GIVEN FOUR MONTHS

Ole Hanson, who has been working at construction work on the Albertson building, was given four months in jail this week by Judge Hurley, and is serving his time under Janitor McGimsey at the courthouse. He appears to be a worthy successor to Mike Nolan.

STOCK OF BANK OF UKIAH STILL FURTHER REDUCED

As the dissolution of the Bank of Ukiah proceeds the capital stock is being constantly reduced and a certificate was filed in the clerk's office this week to the effect that the stock had been reduced from $150,000 to $25,000.

HANBY FORD TAKES MISS WHITE AS BRIDE

Hanby Alfred Ford and Miss Ula White were quietly married last Sunday morning at 6:30 o'clock at the South Methodist parsonage by Rev. S. P. Pope. Following the ceremony the newly wedded couple departed for San Francisco, where they are spending their honeymoon. The immediate relatives of the contracting parties were the only ones invited to witness the ceremony.

Both bride and groom have grown to maturity in this city and are among the favorites in the younger social set. Mr. Ford is a son of Mrs. Arnold Ford, and is a young man of sterling worth, and in his career as a rancher has met with marked success. His bride is the daughter of Clarence White, of Talmage, and is a young lady of much charm and attractiveness.

The Dispatch joins with their hosts of other friends in wishing them much joy.

RELATIVES HEAR FROM NEWTON MOHN IN ARMY

Relatives in this city of Newton Mohn, who recently enlisted in the forestry regiment, have heard from him. He arrived at Washington, D. C., recently, and states that he expects to leave for France very soon. He likes so much of the army life as he has seen thus far.

Albert Hogan and wife came over from Boonville the latter part of last week, spending several days in town.

Chas. Kasch went to San Francisco on business last Saturday.

LAND SHOW OPENS AT S. F. TOMORROW

Leslie Crawford, who has been placed in charge of the Mendocino county exhibit at the California land show, which opens at San Francisco tomorrow, has selected T. M. Cleland as his assistant and Mr. Cleland will assume his duties at the exhibit at once. Mr. Crawford announces that he needs still more produce for the exhibit, and farmers or others who have material they desire to display are urged to send it in at once. It will be taken care of by Mr. Crawford. If notified, he will call for it. The show will last until Oct. 29, so there is plenty of time yet in which exhibits may be sent in.

Preparations for the show have been going on at Eighth and Market streets for two months past, and it promises to be the most successful that has been given thus far. More than a city block has been utilized in converting the space into a forest of fragrant redwoods, interspersed with miniature growing gardens and the choicest fruits and other products of this state. More than 25 carloads of redwood bark and branches from Mendocino and Humboldt counties have been utilized in preparing the tented city for the big exposition, and the forty counties' exhibits, as well as the livestock, poultry, industries and other exhibits, if reduced to figures, would represent more than 200 carloads.

Among the local exhibitors in the poultry department will be Geo. Schmitt, and Hale Prather, of Ukiah, the Hopland stock farm, as well as others.

A large number of Mendocino Co., people are going and the railroad will announce a special rate for their accomodation.

HELD ON $1700 BOND FOR ROBBERY CHARGE

Earl Edison, of Willits, was arrested at that place last week and has been placed under $1700 bonds by Judge Young to appear before the superior court on a charge of robbery. Edison furnished the bonds and has been released from custody.

It appears that an Austrian woodsman flashed a considerable roll of money while in a Willits saloon in the presence of Edison and others. Shortly afterward while standing at the bar he charged that Edison was trying to pick his pocket. They had some words and he was put out into the back yard, consderably under the influence of liquor. It is stated that Edison then left the saloon, followed by a third party, who saw him go down an alley and into the back yard. Shortly afterward, it is alleged, the other party saw Edison leave, and on going into the yard found the Austrian just recovering from the effects of a blow. He alleged that Edison had hit him over the head, knocking him down, and had taken his purse and money, while he was lying in a semi-conscious condition.

Edison has not yet been arraigned in the superior court.

500 CORDS OF BARK DESTROYED BY FIRE

Willits, Oct. 10—For some weeks a fire has been burning in the vicinity of Sherwood and it is now on the headwaters of the Ten Mile. The Northwestern Redwood Co., has extended its logging camp to that point and this summer cut a large quantity of tanbark. Last week the fire burned up about 500 cords of this bark which had been peeled and was ready for shipment below. The bark had been sold to a tannery company located on the bay and so they will have to stand the loss. Tanbark is now selling for about $20 per cord so it seems that the loss is about $10,000.

FRESNO MAN WEDS POINT ARENA GIRL

The Santa Republican last Tuesday says:

Motoring here from Fresno, while his bride-to-be came here by train from Point Arena, Hans M. Beck met Miss Della A. Kunzler in Santa Rosa Monday, secured their marriage license and called in City Recorder C. N. Collins to perform the ceremony.

They were married in the private office of County Clerk W. W. Felt. Following a brief stay in Santa Rosa, they departed for the south in Mr. Beck's automobile, and will make their home near Fresno, where the groom is a rancher.

Misses Bernice Ainslie and Carrie Bishop, of Point Arena, were in town the first of the week en route to institute.

Register of the State Land Office } ss.

Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 602, Statutes of California of 1917, effective July 27, 1917, I, W. S. Kingsbury, Surveyor General and ex officio Register of the State Land Office of the State of California, do hereby demand that all interest shown to be unpaid and due by the foregoing statement shall be paid in full on or before December thirty-first, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, to the Treasurer of the above-named county, together with the sum of three dollars costs imposed by the provisions of said statute upon the owner or owners of each certificate of purchase listed in said statement, as well as upon each person who may have acquired an interest in all or some portion of the lands in such certificate described, but to whom the certificate has never been surrendered.

And Notice Is Hereby Given, That in the event such delinquent interest, together with such costs, be not paid within the time above limited, a penalty of twenty per cent of the aggregate amount of interest delinquent on December thirty-first, A. D. 1917, will be imposed in each case upon the person or persons liable for the payment thereof.

And Notice Is Hereby Further Given, That, except as otherwise provided in said statute, in the event any portion of such delinquent interest, together with such penalty and costs, and all additional interest falling due January first, A. And Notice Is Hereby Further Given, That in the event the owner of any such certificate of purchase shall have died, without disposing of the lands therein described, and no administration of his estate has been had, the time of payment hereinabove prescribed is by said statute extended for a period of six months; provided, however, that appropriate probate proceedings must be commenced in each case not later than December 31st, 1917, and written notice thereof forwarded by registered mail to the undersigned Register of the State Land Office, at Sacramento, California.

And Notice Is Hereby Further Given, That any person having a conveyance of the whole or any portion of the land described in any such certificate of purchase, but to whom the certificate has never been surrendered, may protect his lands from such forfeiture, upon making due proof of ownership and paying his pro rata share of the interest delinquent thereon, with costs, as in said statute provided.

And Notice Is Hereby Further Given, That said statute extends to and includes all unlisted lieu lands and all unsegregated swamp and overflowed lands sold under the authority of any law of this state and included in the foregoing statement; provided, that all purchasers thereof, their heirs and assigns, who protect themselves against forfeiture by making the payments required by said statute, shall not thereby be deprived of any existing right to receive restitution of all sums paid on account of the purchase price of such lands, whether for principal or interest, upon duly complying with all provisions of law governing such restitution.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal of office, at Sacramento, California, this 29th day of September, A. D. 1917.

SOUTHERN METHODIST LEAGUE ENTERTAINS

One of the most enjoyable social features of last week was the entertainment at the J. R. Thomas home in this city for the Southern Methodist league. The grounds of the Thomas home were lighted by jack-o'-lanterns in the trees, which gave a feeling of welcome to the guests as they arrived.

The first part of the evening was consumed in a business meeting, the election of officers taking most of this period. Albert M. Hardie was elected president for the coming year.

Following this, came the social hour, during which games were played, all enjoying themselves to the utmost, and then the guests adjourned outside to a bonfire, where they roasted "weenies" and made "hotdog" sandwiches, rounding the proceedings off with watermelon.

The Thomas home is famous for its hospitality and all went home feeling that the occasion was one of the most pleasurable of the year.

UKIAH, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1917

MY WAR CREED

Written by a Ukiah woman for the many women whose household duties give them no time apart to study the war in its deeper meaning; who are secretly out of sympathy with the government, the administration, and, foolishly, the president, on account of this government's participation in the war. It is hereby submitted to them with the hope that they may learn to take the war philosophically, and seek to find God, even in the cruel strife in which the world is now engulfed, and over which the angel of goodness as ever bends to purge and to lift upward and onward—The Author

We believe in a Supreme Power that pervades the universe, a power that ever struggles in all life for higher planes of development. We term this power God, nor do we fail to associate it with our civic faith and therein to asknowledge its presence and its direction in planning, shaping and moulding the United States of America through slow steps of social and material progress for her preeminence among the nations of the world.

Of the many elements which constitute this greatness we would not have one to consist of a supremacy of material greatness over all spiritual and moral growth. We are proud that these qualities have grown side by side.

In following these ideals as a nation, militarism has had no place with us. Therefore we believe that when the United States has finally decided to swerve from its course of unpreparedness for war; has become willing to sacrifice the best blood of the land on the altar of war to the end that liberty, justice and equality, not for us now, nor for a part of us now, but for the whole world forever, that she has reached a sublimity of true greatness; that the utterance and execution of this principle has but one parallel douwn the ages—a crucifixion, a mob, and the immortal words, "O God forgive them, for they know not what they do."

By the light of past evalution we can go only forward. All history abounds with instances which become our watchword of courage and our light of faith. There are two instances in our own history with which every child is familiar, and in which the greatest problems and issues were at stake, and which come to mind in verification of this principle—the great revolution in 1776, and the great civil war in 1860-65. The Declaration of Independence had its Lexington and Valley Forge, and the Civil War its Gettysburg and assassination.

Before there is an attainment of universal disarmament, universal democracy and universal brotherhood, which must come eventually, this world war must struggle to a finish. The conflict was inevitable and written on the pages of destiny. Turning back through the pages of evolution and viewing its book from the beginning, there is evidence confronting us continually which shows that we can go only forward. The Indians of North America were exterminated by our forefathers for our own more peaceful and superior possession. Systems of human slavery and human sacrifice, the world over, ages ago, have lost their heathen adherence. The dinosaurus, the winged dragon and the flying serpent (prehistoric beasts) disappeared before the advance of civilization, though men in many instances were destroyed in the process. The world progesses through the shedding of seas of blood—we do know this, although not why—and only after sacrifices are victories won; after the cross, the crown; that death, of an individual or a nation, is but illusory and means new birth. War is a great destroyer, but a great creator, and it will be proven that the creations are equal to and surpass the destructions.

The world is now swinging on a pivot. For many long years materialism ascended in the balance in Europe, but now it is going down. The process will be slow as measured by human standards, for the Almighty takes infinite time to mature His purposes. There is no use to murmur or complain, but there is great need of intelligence to view the mighty plan and grasp its purport and there is great need of resignation while it is being worked out. This is God's world, not ours.

We are now a community world and must have community interests in our fellow beings, in our government, in the world at large. We must think in community terms, act in community interests. Thus all at once, it seems, the world has awakened from its lethargy of selfishness and uselessness and we realize that we are destined to attain some ultimate end of perfection. We believe that Christ's idea of government will yet be tried out and His kingdom enthroned.

"I doubt not that through the ages some one increasing purpose runs,
And the thoughts of men are widened through the process of the suns."

Could we have a view of this world crisis in perspective it would then appear that much method moved above, and that through this world madness of today "God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform." His ways are not our ways, neither are His thoughts our thoughts, for as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are His ways and thoughts higher than ours.

We have faith in the future of the United States—a future quickly coming, which will ring with new tones of greatness, mingled with which will be songs of Europe's appreciation for our support and participation in this Gethsemane—earth's darkest hour. We prove there are some things greater money, greater than military preparedness, greater than life itself and that thse things are moral and spiritual and have eternal worth. The United States has drawn millions of earth's downtrodden and oppressed to her doors and they have found within these doors a haven of rest and promise. The sunshine and warmth of her radiance have penetrated the farthest parts of the earth, disolving old-world systems of life and government until we can now see for the distant future a system of republics banded together into one universal democracy—the United States the central beaming light of this galaxy, around which all younger republics will revolve and from which they will take warmth and vitality. The light of a resurrection morn is breaking ahead for the world, a light that will not dim nor falter, piercing and struggling now through a world engulfed and dethroned by materialism. The United States is and has been the angel of that light, the torch-bearer, the custodian of God's will concerning Europe, and she goes about performing this will, spiritually unconscious but with a supreme faith. The blood of the old world we would solidify and unify into a perfect loyal whole, even as America, the pride and joy of all her people, the first, truest and greatest democracy in the world.

We believe every woman of the United States should render a deep respect for the institutions and high ideals of her native land, a willing obedience to her laws, and a generous loyalty in word and action to each president whom the people choose. We have heard much of the right man being born for the hour and the place. It is traditional with us, as if God, when great calamities were impending or some great crisis at hand, sent into power to meet the occasion someone in whose ability He could trust, even as David slinging stones on the hillsides of Judea was unconsciously being prepared to meet Goliath and the Philistines.

If God does this thing—sends the right man for the hour and the occasion—and He does—would He in this dark time and hour have forgotten us? No. Nor were we forgotten.

When this tremendous world struggle was preparing Woodrow Wilson was the man destined to guide us through it to the end, which is still in the future for us, but which to the Divine Eye is as the things of the past. And so to our president we owe our every iota of loyalty and support. Let us not wait for the future to show us that he was the divinely destined leader for this period of travail.

Such is our creed. To feel it, to live it, and if necessary, to die for it, we consider that a precious privilege of every American woman.

FIRST SEASONAL MEETING OF SATURDAY CLUB

Very much rested and strengthened by the relaxation of a long summer rest, the members of the Saturday Club held their first meeting of the new club year (1917-1918) on last Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roberd Thomas. Mrs. Lillian Thomas and Mrs. Wm. Bromley were hostesses.

This home looked very inviting to the many who came. There was a simple tasteful decoration in green and red, giving a pretty effect and an air of sweet attractiveness. In large bouquets were long graceful streamers of the wild-rose with the red fruit dotting the green foliage Smaller bouquets of red dahlias graced the tables, while the flag, quietly conspicious, asserted its place.

This club year affords a continual treat in store for its members with its offering of well prepared papers along timely subjects, book reviews, dramatic readings, music of American composers by our own home talent, humor by our humorist, current events of world importance, and social events. The whole program will be subtly felt by the whole community.

Mrs. Maxwell, the president, called the meeting to order and very modestly extended her greetings to the club, including in her address the reading of the club's constitution.

Two musical numbers by the American composer, Arthur Foote, who has distinguished himself for compositions in piano and orchestral music. Two charming numbers, "A Poem" and "The Flying Cloud" were artistically rendered by Mrs. Hale McCowen Jr.

"Current Events" by Mrs. Percy Handy informed us of the greatest things transpiring in the great world outside and were exceptionally well chosen and well delivered, holding the interest of all.

The History and Aim of the Red Cross was the special feature of the afternoon's program and the subject was made thrillingly interesting by Mrs. Minnie Jamison, who possesses when reading or talking, the rare gift of imparting to others what she herself sees and thinks of her subjects, thus converting the most wayward minds to active interest, and it is always something worth while when Mrs. Jamison is heard at the club.

Beginning with the earliest idea for alleviating the suffering of the wounded and sick on the battle fields the evolution of this first idea was traced up to the organization of the Red Cross movement by Florence Nightingale after the Crimean War in Europe in 1854; to the organization of the Red Cross movement in our own country, after the Civil War, in 1869 by Clara Barton and others, and on to its later organization in 1882.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE BEING HELD AT WILLITS

Willits, Oct. 11—The annual Teacher's Institute is being held at Willits this week. There is a splendid attendance and the program is a little better than usual, if that is possible. Out of the 210 teachers in the county 208 answered to roll call, and the two absentees were kept away by illness.

The outside talent consists of Preston W. Search and John F. Murray of Berkeley, and President F. F. Nalder of the Arcata State normal school. Mr. Search has given lectures on various timely topics, some of which were illustrated by stereoptican slides. Mr. Murray specializes on "Child Conservation" and kindred subjects, while Dr. Nalder talks on all kinds of school subjects. In addition to these various of our county teachers have made timely talks on various phases of school work.

The Institute is being held at Whited's hall where there are also a few school exhibits, but most of the exhibits are on display at the grammar school. The Ukiah High has the best manual training exhibits this year.

Tuesday morning when the Institute opened P. I. Lancaster delivered the welcoming address, which was desponded to by County Superintendent Anna Porterfield. The usual festivities and entertainments have been extended to the visitors by the people of Willits and the teachers all seem to be having an excellent time.
